GOVERNMENT ASKS

Short-term relief and longer-term stimulus needed to keep Toronto Pearson competitive and support Peel's recovery

- Develop a science-based, phased approach to reopening travel, when the time is right;
- Provide a full waiver of airport rent for 2021 and 2022;
- Incentivize travel and tourism. The airport is safe when the government and public are ready;
- Invest in critical airport infrastructure and low-touch technologies and the next phase of airport segment of the Eglinton Crosstown West Extension.

Healthy Airport Commitment

- Health of passengers and employees comes first
- Guiding principles aligned with global best practices
- 1st in Canada to receive ACI Health Accreditation
- Awarded “best hygiene” measures in North America
- Healthy Airport is most important part of rebuilding public trust in air travel

7.1-5

Pearson supporting Federal Entry Requirements

Before traveller boards a plane to Canada:

- Passenger health assessment
- Mandatory temperature checks
- Negative COVID-19 PCR test

After arriving in Canada

- Health declaration to CBSA with PHAC support
- Test upon arrival at the airport
- Take home Day 10 test
- Hotel quarantine until first test results received
- 14-day quarantine plan

Pearson leads on workforce/passenger testing research

New studies exploring the efficacy of antigen testing, compared with PCR test, in a high-throughput environment.
