The People
Women and Affordable Housing A lived experience discussion, where guests share how crucial affordable housing is for women and mothers fleeing domestic violence and experiencing other challenges.
Young and Homeless An exploration of the unique needs of youth experiencing homelessness and how we can best support them.
A Home to Grow Old In – Aging & Housing Pressures in Peel As Peel's senior population increases, how are seniors' housing needs taken into consideration?
Encampments: Finding the balance What is the encampment situation in Peel and how should we respond to it?
Housing and Human Sex Trafficking Connections between the availability of affordable housing, preventing human sex trafficking and supporting victims.
Solutions and Looking Ahead
'Yes, in my backyard' – the case for community/non-profit housing A direct challenge to NIMBYism. Examines how community/non-profit housing can benefit the community.
Affordable housing for all: could government policy get us there? Examines the role of public policy in affordable housing solutions and how governments work with developers
Beyond development: Maximizing/converting existing stock Untapped units can be a cost-effective and quick way to make affordable housing more available. Innovative solutions are possible.
Housing with Supports: Beyond Sticks and Bricks 'Bricks and Mortar' is only part of the solution. How can we holistically support people with complex housing and health needs?

Housing and Health: Why Integration Matters

Health interventions during the pandemic have resulted in positive outcomes for the homeless, what were the lessons learned and what more can be done?

The System

Understanding Homelessness in Peel

A panel of academics, policy experts, and advocates to explore the homelessness landscape in the Region of Peel

Housing and (in)equality

A challenging but necessary conversation on racial discrimination and systemic inequalities in the affordable housing system.

Please note: topics are subject to change without notice