

Appendix I

COVID-19 Temporary Pandemic Pay

COVID-19 Temporary Pandemic Pay Eligible Workplaces and Employees

The following provides an overview of the eligible workplaces and eligible employees for the COVID-19 Temporary Pandemic Pay.

Eligible workplaces:

Supportive Housing Sector (residences that provide a combination of housing and support services to help people in need live as independently as possible in their community) -

- Currently receive funding from the Region of Peel or the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing (MMAH)
- Congregate care buildings (e.g., housing formerly known as domiciliary hostels funded under the Community Homelessness Prevention Initiative)
- Dedicated supportive housing buildings with independent living units
- Scattered units

Emergency Shelter Sector (facilities that provide temporary residence for people who are homeless) -

- Currently receive funding from the Region of Peel or the MMAH
- Emergency and homeless shelters
- Respite and drop-in centres
- Temporary shelter facilities, such as re-purposed community centres or arenas
- Hotels and motels used for self-isolation and / or emergency shelter overflow

Eligible workers: (management positions are excluded)

Direct in-person positions -

- Direct support workers (e.g. intake and outreach workers)
- Clinical staff
- Nursing staff

Auxiliary positions -

- Housekeeping staff
- Security staff
- Administration personnel
- Maintenance staff
- Food service workers